London Trip

Miss Beaver’s Democracy Team had a fantastic, informative time at our private group tour of the Houses of Parliament. We were lucky enough to go into the House of Commons and the House of Lords. We also had a great walking tour led by Mr Allen around Trafalgar Square, Leicester Square, Covent Garden and China Town. We also visited a café in an underground crypt! We’d like to say a HUGE thank you to Mr Allen for driving the mini bus for the day; we couldn’t have done this trip without him! Miss Beaver.

MFL updates

Languages are looking for student Language Leaders to support the team and help drive initiatives forward. If interested, please can students apply by 31st March to the MFL Dept.

Calling all parents/carers – have you used languages as part of your job? Does your company actively promote languages? Could you email us a quote as to why languages have been useful in your job? Email: julie.morgan5@taw.org.uk

Arthog Ambassadors project

We have an exciting opportunity for Burton Borough Students to join a joint group from across Telford and Wrekin schools at Arthog, at the start of the school Summer holidays. This opportunity is aimed at Ethnic Diverse year 9 and 10 students, and priority will also be given to those in receipt of Free School Meals. This opportunity is totally free and students will be in Arthog for 3 days. Any interested students should inform Mrs Stephens (kim.stephens@taw.org.uk). An information evening is being held at Telford Priory School on 27th March at 4.00pm.
